"Four Films for Free at the Pride Center"

With the approach of Fall, and the opening of the 8th Annual Pikes Peak Lavender Film Festival on Friday, September 14th at the Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center, the Pride Center will host a film series.

Saturday, August 4th at 7 pm, the film "KM.O (Kilometer Zero)" will be screened. "At Kilometer 0 - the very center of Madrid - relationships begin, love blossoms and live intersect as 14 people come together in a passionately exuberant sex farce." Spanish with English subtitles.

Saturday, August 11th at 7 pm, "Adored: Diary of a Porn Star" will screen. "Riki's family has no idea that he's a well-known gay porn star. So when his uptight brother comes to Riki's Rome apartment to resolve their late father's estate, he gets quite a shock." Italian with English subtitles.

Saturday, August 18th at 7 pm, "Latter Days" will screen. "From C. Jay Cox, the writer of the hit comedy "Sweet Home Alabama," comes a heartwarming and tender gay romantic drama that combines laughs, seduction, tears and plenty of romance."

Saturday, August 25th at 7 pm, the documentary "The Power of Harmony" will screen. "Through the personal experiences of "The Turtle Creek Chorale" the viewer takes an intimate look at the controversial issues of the day: coming out, gay marriage, religious views on homosexuality, and gay adoptions."

Free popcorn! And, a drawing for two Opening Night Passes to the Lavender Film Festival will be held at each screening. You must be present in order to win!

HELP OUR OWN LGBT FILM FESTIVAL AND HAVE A BALL (Sept. 14-16)

The Festival has received a huge rise in costs for film rentals and for use of our venue. WE NEED YOUR HELP.
You can be a sponsor of the festival and see your name on the big screen in our power point display for as little as $60. Contact Bob barmintor_8@msn.com

Purchasing a full festival pass supports the festival and gives you access to an entire week-end of varied and fabulous films and parties. You can receive a discounted full festival pass for $60 by sending a check to: PPLFF, P.O. Box 1987,
CS, CO 80901. All donations to the festival are tax-deductible. Individual Film program Tickets go on sale at the Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center Box Office (719-634-5583) on August 7. Help the festival today!!!

Make a Weekend of the Pikes Peak Lavendar Film Festival!

The Pikes Peak Lavender Film Festival, now in its eighth year, shows the best shorts and features of the year. We are fortunate to have a real LGBT Film Festival in Colorado Springs. We are the only community in Colorado to have an LGBT film festival. Come spend the whole week of September 14-16 watching films and experience a complete film festival. It'll feel as if you went away on vacation without the hassle of filling your gas tank or driving far. You'll feel so much smarter and so much more validated. We have films from France, Germany, Switzerland, Hong Kong, Australia etc. about LGBT people around the globe.
